WHAT IS CLAIMED IS:

Claims

- 1. Use of a composition containing inactivated influenza virus and aluminum as adjuvant for the production of an influenza virus vaccine for nasal or oral administration.
- 2. Use according to Claim 1 characterized in that the vaccine is suitable for prophylaxis of influenza virus infections.
- 3. Use according to Claim 1 or 2, characterized in that the influenza virus is obtained from an infected cell culture.
- 4. Use according to one of Claims 1-3, characterized in that the inactivated antigen is a highly purified antigen.
- 5. Use according to one of Claims 1-4, characterized in that the influenza virus vaccine has a virus antigen content between 1.5 μg antigen/dose and 50 μg antigen/dose.
- 6. Use according to one of Claims 1-5, characterized in that the vaccine is presented for application in the form of drops, a spray, or a form suitable for inhalation.
- 7. Use according to one of Claims 1-5, characterized in that the vaccine is presented for application in the form of tablets, gelatin capsules, or microcapsules.
- 8. Use according to one of Claims 1-4, characterized in that the vaccine is presented for application in the form of a cream or emulsion.